Verdana Foods

Plant-based snacks people actually crave.

Seed Round · 2026 · Confidential

THE PROBLEM

Snacking is broken

- Shoppers want better-for-you snacks — but most taste like compromise.
- Plant-based options are fragmented, pricey, and hard to find in one brand.
- Health-conscious millennials and Gen Z are switching, yet feel underserved.
- Retail buyers want a plant-based line with real velocity, not shelf clutter.

OUR SOLUTION

A snack brand built around crave + clean

- A focused line of plant-based snacks — clean labels, bold flavor.
- Priced to compete, formulated to repeat: taste tested to beat category leaders.
- Omnichannel: DTC subscription + retail, one recognizable brand.
- A supply chain designed to scale margin as volume grows.

MARKET

Category growing ~11% annually; plant-based outpacing total snacks.

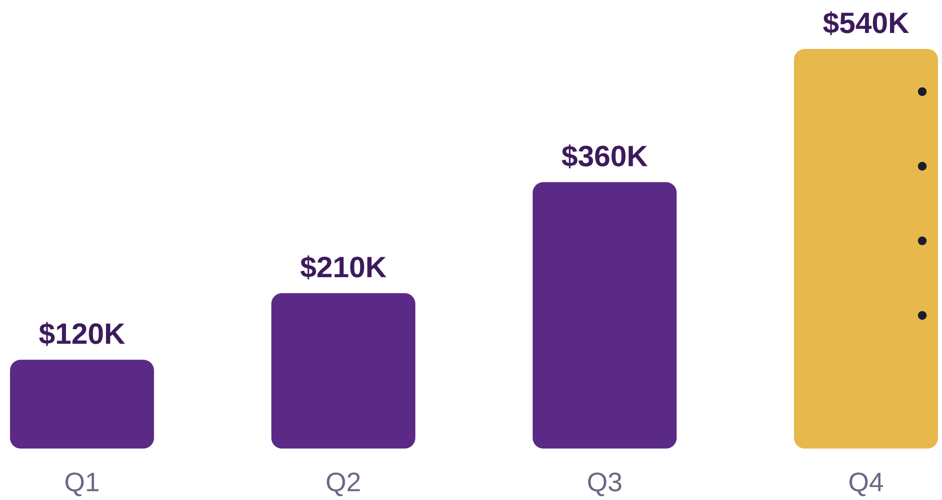
BUSINESS MODEL

Two engines, one brand

- DTC subscription: high margin, first-party data, predictable repeat revenue.
- Retail: reach and credibility; DTC insights de-risk what we pitch to buyers.
- Gross margin target ~62% at scale; blended CAC payback under 6 months.
- Each channel makes the other stronger — data in, velocity out.

TRACTION

Early signal is strong



- 4.5x revenue growth across the year
- 42% of revenue from returning subscribers
- Two regional retail chains signed
- 4.8/5 average product rating
